Protecting nature and its contribution to wellbeing

Managing ecosystems in large parks

Healthy and diverse habitats

Protection of species, including at risk species

Restoration of degraded natural habitats

Highlighting biodiversity

Wildlife inventories

Ecological value

A balance between access and environmental protection

Infrastructures, furniture and design adapted to the environment and visitors' needs

Experiences and discoveries

Recreational and educational activities

Civic action days

Montréal

Parcs-nature.com/public/en

25263 (06-20)